THE ASTERIX CONTEST

AT YOUR LIBRARY

Gatineau, October 28, 2019. – From November 4 to 30, 2019, all libraries members of the Réseau BIBLIO de l'Outaouais celebrate the 60th anniversary of the most popular mustachioed hero of the comic strip, Asterix, with a great contest. With each visit at the library, to be eligible, the users will receive a contest entry coupon that they have to fill out and drop it into the box provided for this purpose. The regional prize draw will take place December 16, 2019 at the Réseau BIBLIO de l'Outaouais head office and the winners will be selected by a random draw from all the entry coupons received from all of the affiliated libraries.

The participants have a chance to win one of five gift-wrapped prizes each including a piggy bank, magnetic bookmarks, a puzzle and a board game, comic books from the adventures of Asterix and many other surprises.

The Réseau BIBLIO de l'Outaouais is a non profit organization that for more than 55 years, thanks to it's administrators, it's personnel and to all it's devoted volunteers, aim to create and maintain the library services to promote the culture in all backgrounds, for the users greatest interest.
